S-STORE Series Automated Carousel-type Storage Systems

Sovtest ATE LLC is a manufacturer of carousel-type storage systems.

The storage systems are designed according to Customer's facilities and stored materials.

Automated carousel-type systems are used for storage and quick access to spare parts, accessories, small parts, tools, hardware, etc.

Application:

- Warehouses in various kinds of industries: (automotive, medical, electronic, mechanical engineering, etc.)
- Companies dealing with a large amount of printed documentation (archives, designers, developers, etc.)

Available designs:

- Reinforced design. Used for storage of heavy materials like spare parts, hardware, tooling, etc. j,
- Lightweight design. Used for storage of documents (folders, binders, cards, papers), SMD components, drugs and other lightweight items.

Features:

- Top efficiency usage of production and storage facilities
- Automatic delivery of materials to an operator
- Increased speed and precision of warehouse operations
- Fast search of materials with the help of LED indicators on the give-away window
- Protective barriers ensure safety while operating the system
- Optional temperature and humidity control inside the system
- Optional barcode scanner and digital scales
- Optional ERP system integration
- Data and unauthorized access protection